The yearbook staff extends our gratitude and thanks to the community within Rome Free Academy. Thank you for an unforgettable year. -Allie Grande, Editor-in-Chief 1

Alexandra Grande: Editor-in-Chief

One of the most rewarding experiences of my high school career was being able to witness countless documented memories of my peers. And for this experience, I say thank you to Mr. Maitland and Coach Gaesser for allowing me to have this opportunity, even if they got sick of me after the first year. Speaking of teachers who should be sick of me, I thank Mr. Dursi for pushing me to reach my untapped potential, and for influencing me to become my own person. I thank Mrs. Gleason for allowing me to realize that I love literature and writing immensely, and for tolerating the shenanigans between Megan and I. To Mrs. Frawley, thank you for your undying patience and wisdom throughout my pursuit for education. I admire your ability to not kick me out of your office.

I thank my parents, for providing me with endless opportunities and the sacrifices they have made to ensure my success. I love you both with my entire being.

To Nikki- have fun, but do not take my bedroom. Savor every moment high school has to offer, because it is over in a blink of an eye. Thank you for being my best friend for the last 16 years, I am genuinely unsure of what I will do without you. Do not burn down the house, Schmidt. I'll miss you.

To Emily Worth- Thank you for being my very best friend for the last four years, and for constantly making light of our interesting situations. I will miss you, I will call you, and I will show up at your dorm room during spring break. Tear up South Carolina, but New York will miss you. <3

To my Best Friends- Thank you for watching me grow on this exciting journey. We have laughed, cried, and allowed high school to become a part of ourselves. I cannot wait to see what your future holds, and I hope to see each of you do great things. Thank you for being with me all these years, I love you all immensely. (M.M., N.F., A.K., K.D.)

To Emily Perrault- After all these years, I'm grateful that you have put up with me. Whether it be leaving fourth period, video taping me moments before swimming into a wall, or plotting to steal my cat, you have made me laugh countless times. I know the future has amazing things in store for you, and I can't wait to see what they are. Don't let anybody dull your sparkle.

To Syrup Boy- Thank you for being by my side since sixth grade. Spending senior year with you has been a blessing, and I am forever grateful of the stars finally aligning. Thank you for never failing to bring butterflies to my stomach, to make me laugh, or giving me hours-long Facetime calls. You are my absolute best friend, the source of my laughs, and the sole reason I tolerate coming to school. I absolutely cannot wait to see what the future brings you. I know for certain it will be something great. See you soon. Derek Walter Viviani, much love <3.

To anybody reading this- Cherish every memory like it is your last. Enjoy every moment that life brings you, whether it be good or bad. Time really does fly by when you're having fun, and high school has been a blast. Thank you for sharing your memories with me.

"Life moves pretty fast. If you don't stop and look around once in a while, you could miss it." - Ferris Bueller

I hope to attend Barnard College, Wesleyan University, or American University to major in International Relations and eventually practice International Law with a concentration in Middle Eastern Affairs. I aspire to become involved in politics.

Emily Perrault: Junior Editor

As my high school career comes to an end, I'm grateful to be leaving Rome Free Academy with years of memories and life lessons. I am also grateful to have the responsibility of junior editor of this year's yearbook, which my classmates and I have worked very hard on. I'd like to thank Mr. Maitland and Coach Gaesser for being amazing advisors and allowing me the opportunity to be junior editor.

I'd also like to thank my family, my friends, and all the teachers I've had for the past four years for always supporting me and being apart of all the great memories I will cherish forever.

Time flies. Everybody is in a rush to get out of high school, to grow up and be on their own. Here's my advice: don't rush it. Enjoy every last minute. It won't be perfect, there's ups and downs. Make the most out of everything, through the good times and the bad times.

I wouldn't trade the last four years for anything, I've had the most fun with the most amazing people. Leaving the people I've grown up with is not easy. To Class of 2020- Congratulations, we made it! I'll miss you all, and I wish you all the best in your future endeavors. Be safe and always have fun!! To the underclassmen- hold down the fort, enjoy your last few years...and keep your GPA up!

Thank you for everything Rome Free Academy. I'll miss many things but I am ready for the future and to move on to the next chapter. Once a black knight, always a black knight.

Mr. Lebaron: Principal

Dear students,

As I reflect on the school year, I get a large cheesy grin as I am reminded as to how impressionable youth can be and how important it is to all of you to do well in life despite your resistance to suggestions and direction. You want us all to think sometimes you don't care or you could care less, when in actuality, it is just the opposite, you care deeply about yourselves, others, your education, and your future. I think about the success many of you have had along the way and how much those successes have meant and how you visit your AP, school counselor, or teacher, and tell them you passed your exam, raised your grade, made it to school everyday, or simply that you have not received any discipline referrals over an extended period of time. Good try my friends pretending you don't care, but we all know you do.

The message in the last paragraph is how important it is in life to focus on our successes and learn from our failures. We all fail, I have failed many times and continue to find things that I can improve upon, but failure is important because it teaches us that life is not perfect and there are no perfect people. Analyze your mistakes, be self-reflective, and then make personal changes that prevent making the same mistake in the future. Take ownership of shortcomings to eliminate the criticism from others who will point them out. This strategy builds confidence, character, and strength of mind. Each and every one of you has something amazing to offer this world, so forget the bad days and remember the great moments, those little successes, those great people around you who love you and respect you and appreciate you for who you are. Every journey, regardless of how far out of reach it may seem, begins with one small step, take that step TODAY!

My last bit of advice is for my seniors, my first 4-year cohort as principal, from freshmen to seniors; I am very proud to have had this opportunity to be your principal and watch your growth from young kids to mature young adults with the future at your doorstep. I am so thankful for all of you. Simply the Best in 2020!! 2020 will always and forever be very special to me....thank you so much!

All my best!!

Sincerely,

Mr. LeBaron

Erika Rizzo: Valedictorian

I would like to congratulate the rest of the Top Ten and the entire Class of 2020 on all of our accomplishments throughout these past four years. It has truly been an unforgettable journey, and I cannot wait to see what life has in store next. For myself, I plan on attending the University at Buffalo in the fall to major in Medicinal Chemistry.

Although we will all be on new paths very soon, I will cherish the memories and friends I have made at RFA. With the experiences I have had in the many clubs and activities I am involved in--Leo Club, French Club, Mock Trial, Honor Society, STASS, Science Club, Marching Band, Winterguard, etc.--my time in high school has been truly memorable. I would like to add a shoutout to all my fellow dancers at John Hayes O'Neill Studio of Dance for always supporting me. To my classmates, I wish you all the best on your future endeavors!

Nicolas Ferretti: Salutatorian

Walking into school the first day of freshman year, I couldn't have imagined everything that would happen during my time at Rome Free Academy. The memories, new friends, late nights doing homework, and everything else has led to this final culminating point. So, congratulations Class of 2020, we made it through. My time as president of STASS, captain of the varsity cross country and track teams, student leader in various music ensembles, and every other club or activity I've participated in gave me such an appreciation for what we have here at RFA. The people I've met, and experiences I've had are invaluable.

I'm planning on studying Mechanical Engineering at Northeastern University. I'm thankful for so many people here at RFA and in the community for helping me get to this point, and I am so excited to see what the future entails for all of us. I encourage every younger student to get involved and have fun, take advantage of what's in front of you. Your four years in high school go by so quickly, so make sure you make the most of it.

ZOOCREW.

The Rome Free Academy student section has been filled with school spirit for generations, branding themselves the "ZooCrew". With countless packets of powder paint and immense amounts of school spirit, the RFA student section has rightfully been voted one of the best student sections in the nation. You can follow the ZooCrew on Twitter at @RFAZooCrew!

Glendaloch - "Glenda"
Therapy Dog in Room 1130

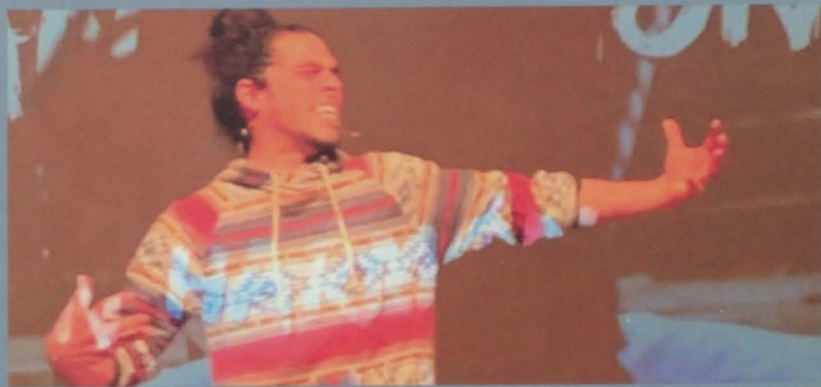

This is a story about Glenda the Good therapy dog. Her original owner was Kevin Covich, an Assisted Learning teacher in RCSD for 22 years. His last 12 years being here at RFA!

Kevin retired from RFA in 2014 and lost his battle with cancer in 2018. Kevin's daughter, Jessica, also works at RFA as one of our many fabulous teacher assistants in Mrs. Gilroy's room, 1130. Jessica took ownership of Glenda for her father and quickly realized what a "good" dog Glenda was, so she decided to have her trained as a therapy dog. Now Glenda comes to work every day where her father worked!

The reason Glenda's given name is Glendaloch, isn't because of the movie The Wizard of Oz! It's because of Kevin's Irish heritage. The book in the upper left corner is the reason she received her name. Glendaloch is a town in Ireland that was founded by St. Kevin, so it made sense to Kevin that her name be Glendaloch!

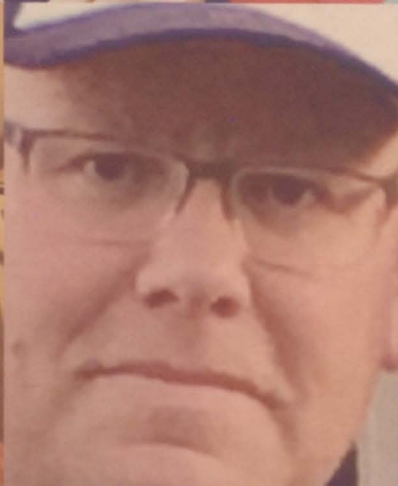

Nathan Harmon

making a statement

Social media is an amazing place. When I was going through a difficult time, I found myself scrolling through Instagram, taking my mind away from real life. One day I came across a video of Nathan Harmon at another school, called "Broken Crayons Color Too". This video grabbed my attention and caused me to find more videos. Nathan's videos helped me, and I soon became "hooked" on watching his speeches. I learned about his past and his mission. Nathan Harmon's messages come from his troubled past, and his amazing desire to change the world. He struggled with alcohol, drugs, self harm and eventually jail. Nathan struggled through life and is helping others through similar events he faced because he wants the world to know that NOBODY is alone! I started to listen to his words and implement them into my life, which made me want to help others. I decided to reach out to Nathan via Instagram direct message, to which he replied and said to talk to my school and that he'd love to come! I talked to many teachers and I finally reached Coach Gaesser, she loved his message just as much as I did. We worked hard to get Nathan here and we did it! His videos even started becoming a part of our class lessons! His words are powerful. Not only was he here in November 2019, he will be back in May 2020. I'm genuinely grateful for how much our district has enjoyed Nathan and will welcome him back. A special thanks to Coach Gaesser!

Kevin,

As you head into the next phase of your life, don't forget to live in the moment.

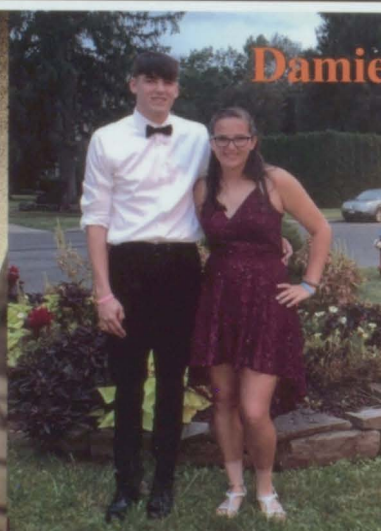

Let your drive and determination lead you and listen to your amazing heart when your brain confuses you! We are so proud of the young man you have become and can't wait to see where your journeys will take you! Remember, "It's not about how hard you can hit..."

Love,
Mom, Dad, Kelsey, Emily
and Abby

I am so proud of the young man you have grown up to become. I can't wait to see what the future holds for you.

Love, Mom

Congratulations Damien,
We are so proud of you and all of your accomplishments. "Shoot" for your goals: Keep working hard to achieve them. We are looking forward to see what the future holds for you.

We Love you,
Dad, Mom and Abigail

Emma,
We are so proud of all you have accomplished in seventeen short years. The bravery and courage you demonstrate is beyond measure. You are honest, compassionate, dedicated and real. Hold on to these memories you have made and don't be afraid to move forward to make more.

Never stop being fierce.

Love Mom, Dad and Ethan

Emily Conley

You have risen above so many challenges and obstacles that life has thrown at you and come out on top. You are such a beautiful young lady. Dad and I can't wait to see what your future brings. Congratulations sweetheart!

Love Always and Forever,
Mom and Dad

You are braver and stronger than you know. You can do anything you put your mind to. I am so proud of you and I love you so much. Congratulations on your graduation. I knew you could do it!

Love Aunt Sue

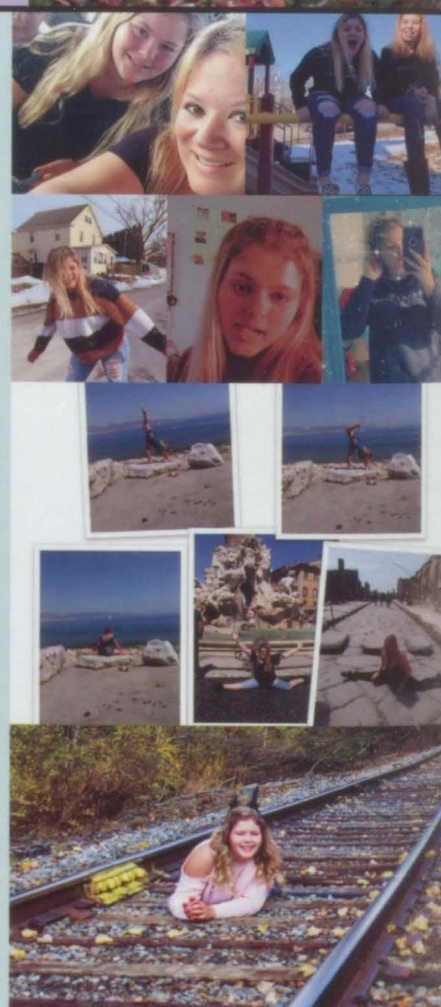

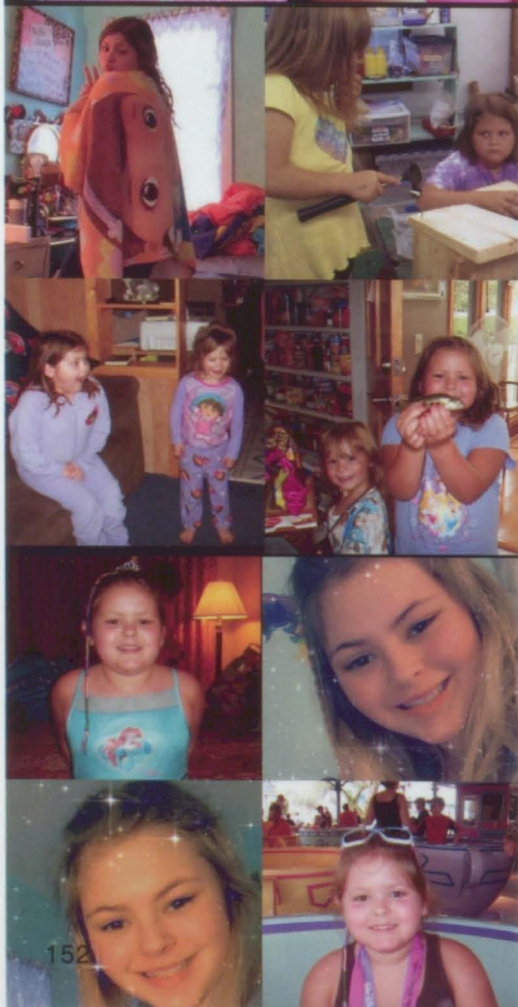

Success is sweet. I am so proud of you. I love you!
Love Pop Pop

Mariah Corrice

Mariah,
To say that I am proud of you would be an understatement. You're caring, compassionate, smart, funny and beautiful. Not everything in life will come easy it takes hard work and dedication. It's ok to shoot for the moon and land on the stars! It's okay to be scared but face your fears. Home will always be your safe place. Continue to fill your passport book with stamps because if you think travel is dangerous you should try routine its lethal. Remember never judge a book by its cover. There will be No elevator to success you MUST take the stairs! And finally, tomorrow is NEVER promised go out and chase your dreams but NEVER CHASE A BOY!

Love Mom

Congratulations and love from all of your family, especially Mom, Dad and Kevin

Rowan Parker

To our beautiful Ro-Bean,
You have been a blessing to our lives from the moment you entered into them. We've had the privilege to watch you mature & grow into the intelligent, beautiful, strong and capable young woman you have become. You are loving, kind and compassionate daughter, big sister and granddaughter, and we are so very proud of you! We have every confidence that you will continue to do great and wonderful things, this is just the beginning of your journey! Remember that with God, all things are possible! Love, Mom and Dad

"You're beautiful,

You're beautiful,

You are made for so much more than all of this

You're beautiful

You're beautiful

You are treasured, you are sacred,

You are his

You're beautiful!"

Brianna Nicole Pfendler

Wow... Bree,

What an amazing journey this has been! No words can possibly express how very proud I am of you. You are such a smart, talented, funny, and amazing young woman. Remember that the life you were given is yours to live; create your own life story and make it amazing! I love you, my baby.

Love, Mom

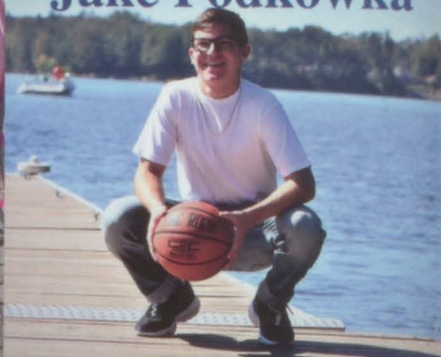

Jake,

This all happened so fast!!! Didn't we just drop you off at your first day of Kindergarten—holding back tears so you wouldn't see?! We are so proud of the young man you have become and cannot wait to see all the good you'll do in this world.

We love you!
Mom, Dad, Casey, and Kathleen

Ellie,

'Though she be but little she is fierce'

This quote, taken from William Shakespeare's A Midsummer Night's Dream has always reminded me of you. In the play, Hermia is a very determined young woman. Her friend Helena uses these words to describe her.

From the moment you were born I knew that your father and I would be raising a very determined little girl! You decided to surprise us by coming earlier than expected. You continued to surprise us by walking at 9 months old. Your spitfire spirit and determination never ceased to amaze us. We learned quickly that when you set your mind to something there was no stopping you. I am proud to say not much has changed. You are a goal setter and you push you limits to get what you want. I admire that in you. You have overcome many obstacles to achieve your goals.

Your fierce determination will take you places that you have never dreamed of! You are a beautiful, independent young woman. Daddy, Maria, and I are so proud of you! Don't ever stop setting goals and reaching for the stars!

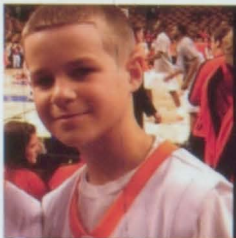

JOE YOXALL

We're so proud of you. You have such a big heart and an incredible fun-loving spirit. You make us smile and laugh everyday. We believe in you and know you will accomplish great things! We love you with all our hearts.

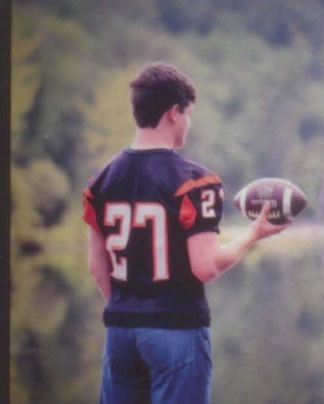

Love,
Mom, Dad, Tommy,
and Okie

I've watched in amazement as you've grown into the person you are today, and I'm watching with great anticipation to see what you become. With your talent and determination, the sky is the limit. Some day you'll look back at these pages and think about the people and events that shaped your high school experience. But now it's time for something new, and as your biggest fan, I can't wait to see what happens next.

Love you always,
Mom, Alex and Clara

Brennan Wells

We've watched you grow all these years, and words will never express how proud we are of you. The road ahead of you won't always be easy, but I've seen you work through challenges and come out stronger than ever. We believe in you, Anastacia.

Love, Dad, Mom, Ievan, Leah, Briana, and Josiah

STATE of Coronavirus: World wide pandemic closes schools

EMERGENCY

Cut It Down

Federal Reserve Chairman Jerome Powell explains the emergency interest rate cut established March 3, 2020. In a rare emergency move, the Federal Reserve cut rates from 1% to 0.25%. This was in response to increased threats to the economy and financial markets.

Watching the Market

A trader on the floor the New York Stock Exchange tracks a historic nosedive caused by Coronavirus fears. The fallout from COVID-19 led to a wild ride on the stock market, including the S&P's nosedive on March 12 that triggered a temporary halt in trading. The federal government quickly moved to implement economic stimulus programs. Additionally, the trading floor was closed, and traders worked remotely starting March 23.

Solutions for Relief

- Student loan interest waived
- 90 day federal tax deferment
- Paid sick leave/family time
- Stimulus checks

Travel Turmoil

Halted Trips

All major cruise lines around the world suspend their operations in response to the coronavirus outbreak. Attractions closed, and travelers called off their trips.

Airports experienced overcrowding as passengers were screened returning from spring break trips.

Taking Care of Others

Sibling Support
With school and child care closures, older siblings help care for younger brothers and sisters when parents had to work outside the home.

Streaming Content

Isolation Games

With school closures, mandatory work-from-home policies and shelter-in-place directives during the pandemic, gaming engagement increases. Wireless carriers reported growth of 75% with overall online traffic increasing by 25%.

The most popular online games were Steam, Counter Strike: Global Offensive, War Zone, and the anticipated, soon-to-be-released, Animal Crossing by Nintendo.

Online Escape

Coronavirus impacts nearly every facet of life, including temporarily closing movie theaters, concert venues, music festivals, museums, libraries, and other attractions. Streaming digital content reached new heights, as performers hosted live performances and venues shared virtual tours.

Comcast NBCUniversal announced it would allow customers to view new films at home through video on demand the same day as its theatrical release.

CHANGING HABITS

Virtual Learning

A growing number of the nation's schools shut down; millions of parents and students attempt to manage education from home.

Remote work varied, as some schools provided e-learning opportunities, teachers worked to share lessons, and everyone sought to find resources suitable for changing the scope of the classroom.

Social Distancing

Bumping elbows becomes the new norm to replace handshakes and hugs as the CDC recommended against any gatherings of 10 or more people in an effort to contain the coronavirus. Many schools, libraries, universities, churches, and sporting and cultural institutions also shut down.

These measures were an attempt to enforce distance between people, optimally a distance of six feet. Minimizing contact with people meant avoiding public transportation, limiting nonessential travel, and skipping social gatherings.

Big Business Gives Back

Facebook's COO Sheryl Sandberg and other Silicon Valley billionaires launch a $5.5 million Emergency COVID-19 Fund for Feeding Families. PBS Learning Media offered free e-learning to students in California; Adobe offered a free two-month subscription to Creative Cloud and Scholastic launched a "Learn at Home" website that contained daily at-home courses for students.

Virtual Field Trips

Many companies and popular travel destinations are offering virtual tours of places students can visit during their extended time at home. The Cincinnati Zoo offered free Virtual Home Safaris through Facebook Live, Google Arts and Culture made tours available to over 2,500 museums and art galleries, and students could travel to national parks such as Yellowstone National Park right from their own living rooms.

Toilet Paper Quarantine

Filling her trunk in West Palm Beach, Florida on March 14, 2020, Taniesh Simpson and Walgreens associate Luis DaSilva unload her cart of supplies for her to use at home, at work and to ship to her sister in Georgia. When United States citizens began testing positive for COVID-19 and the government began discussing the need for quarantines, the public purchased supplies in bulk. Face masks, soap, hand sanitizer, cleaning wipes, bottled water and even toilet paper flew off the shelves. Eventually retailers limited the number of toilet paper packs that consumers could purchase.

Neighbors Helping Neighbors

Volunteers pack food bags in Wisconsin. As urgent requests to self-distance or quarantine jeopardized the country's most vulnerable citizens, people stepped up. Assistance was offered through social media, by visiting relatives through nursing home windows, delivering food, sharing resources and other small acts of kindness.

No Child Left Unfed

According to the U.S. Department of Agriculture, the National School Lunch Program serves 30 million students lunch each day, with close to 22 million of those receiving free or reduced lunches, making it the primary source of nutrition for a plethora of students and detrimental to their health if school is not in session. New York City Public Schools, the country's largest school district with over 1 million students and an average of 900,000 meals served daily, provided grab-and-go meals for any student who needed it, which was mirrored by school districts around the country. Along with school districts, local restaurants, charities, churches and even teachers stepped in to make sure students did not go hungry by raising funds for grocery store gift cards and food banks, stuffing emergency food bags and even using buses to deliver food to those who could not pick it up from the school.

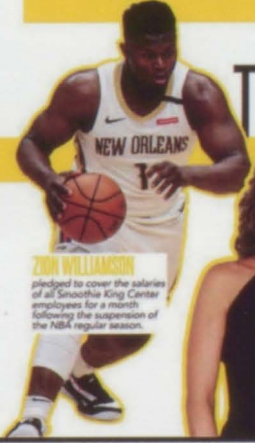

Celebrities Step Up

Celebrities give back during the COVID-19 crisis. Many pledged substantial financial contributions, donated to local food banks to help feed their communities, and gave their time. These donations helped workers who faced unemployment or severely reduced hours due to canceled events or reduced patronage to the service industry.
